

Our vision is inspired in part by the pioneers who established the University of Utah with the goal “that all may be elevated.” Our success comes from understanding that the challenges the world faces today are merely opportunities for more expansive, intensive and transformative thinking – the very kind of education that flourishes at the U.

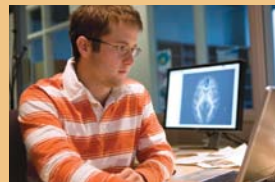

By pledging your support today, you help lay the foundation for an extraordinary future. Please join us in making that future a reality.

THE  UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

together WE REACH

the Campaign for the University of Utah

Together WE REACH is an opportunity for you to create a brighter future for your community and your world. Your support is the critical element in that future, providing scholarships for remarkable students, endowed chairs for world-class faculty, facilities that enable extraordinary research and international opportunities that reach around the globe.

Students, scientists and scholars at the U are addressing some of the world’s most complex issues, exploring how we might cure cancer, find new sources of energy, unlock secrets of the brain, enhance ethical leadership, expand the arts, and increase technology. All this and more is happening right here, right now at the University of Utah.
